Prelude Christmas Suite arr. Arnold B. Sherman

*Call to Worship

The congregation responds in bold.

We recently celebrated Jesus' birth as a baby in a Bethlehem stable.

Today we consider Jesus' visit as a boy to the temple in Jerusalem.

Luke records that when Jesus' parents found him in the temple after he had been missing, he was "sitting with the Jewish teachers, listening to them and asking questions."

We come to this church building to learn about divine truths and to nurture our relationship with God.

In response to his parent's reprimand for staying behind and not traveling with them, Jesus answered, "Did you not know I had to be in my father's house?"

We find it important to include in our lives times like this when we acknowledge the importance of being in the presence of God.

*Prayer of Invocation

Lord God—as the boy Jesus remained in the temple to talk to the teachers, this morning we gather in this church building to worship God. As Jesus sought to learn more about God, we affirm the importance of being in God's presence. Reveal Yourself to us this hour, Lord God, we pray. Amen

Offertory Thought

Living in a relationship with God helps us to identify the holy moments of our lives and to resist temptation to do wrong. Our being here this morning prepares us to live more faithfully to God. This includes using our time, talents, and treasure to make life better for others.

*What can I give Him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I could bring a lamb;
If I were a wiseman, I would do my part;
Yet what I can I give Him – give Him my heart.*

Pastoral Prayer, with the Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, holy is your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen

Hymn Good Christian friends, rejoice (vs. 2, 3) # 210

*Benediction

Postlude Variations on today's hymns

The Garden

Ross Flora, Millard Flora

Down by the creek in that holler
As a child was where I'd wander
I planted seeds, prayed to the father
In grandpa's garden
Before my innocence forgotten
Before my heart had hardened
Before my grace was all but fallen
I walked in the garden
Daddy warned about taking silver
Thirty pieces worth your soul
And be mindful of the serpent
That forbidden fruit takes its toll
In the many miles that took me from home
I got lost, and found out on my own
Learned the hard way, lessons that I'd known
When I left the garden
Am I still a son begotten
Is my soul still sovereign
Have my decisions bound the pardon
Found in the garden
Daddy warned about taking silver
Thirty pieces worth your soul
And be mindful of the serpent
That forbidden fruit takes its toll
Give me strength or give me mercy
If I'm to reap these seeds I've sown
But my weary heart need not worry
Cause I find forgiveness in this ground is grown
Here in the garden
Daddy warned about taking silver
Thirty pieces worth your soul
Boy be mindful of the serpent
That forbidden fruit takes its toll
Here in the garden
Here in the garden

Amen, Amen
